

Southeastern Illinois College notified students about the CARES Grant application opportunity through our text message notification system. See a screenshot of the text message alert.

