

Sociology

SOC 121 Introductory Sociology (3 credit, 3 lecture, 0 lab)

IAI S7 900

A study of society, including the rules, interactions, and cultural patterns that organize everyday life. Analysis of social conflict, the structure and function of institutions, the dynamics of individual and group interactions, social stratification, and interactions among diverse groups of people.

SOC 221 The Family in Society (3 credit, 3 lecture, 0 lab)

IAI S7 902

Survey of the contemporary family in historical and cross-cultural perspectives. Includes trends in mate selection, marriage, child-rearing, employment, gender roles, and communication within the family.

SOC 280 Selected Topics in Sociology (3 credit, 3 lecture, 0 lab)

An in-depth study of selected problems or topics in sociology. The exact content and instructional methodology will vary from semester to semester depending on the subject to be studied. A syllabus or course outline containing additional information will be available with pre-registration materials each time the course is offered. This course may be repeated three times if different topics are considered, but cannot exceed a total of six (6) credits toward graduation. May be offered as variable credit.