In order to receive summer financial aid you must have a valid 2019-2020 FAFSA on file and be in compliance with Southeastern's Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy. You must also satisfy all of the eligibility requirements of the aid programs, including completing verification requirements. Students who attended full time in Fall 2019 and Spring 2020 must be enrolled at least half time to be eligible for Summer 2020 Pell. If you withdraw from a class or classes, your awards will be adjusted accordingly. A reduction in your award could result in you owing on your student account. If you are receiving a Federal Pell grant you are subject to the Return of Title IV Policy. This means that if you withdraw from all of your classes at Southeastern, you may be required to repay a percentage of financial aid that has already been awarded.
